

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

VOL. XXXIII.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1911.

No. 4

SIX NEW GOVERNORS

Were Inducted Into Office Last Monday, Half Democrats.

POLITICAL CHANGES.

John A. Dix First Democrat In New York In 18 Years.

Six new Governors, four of them representing different political parties than their predecessors, were inaugurated in the United States Monday. In three of the states the changes represent gains to the Democratic ranks, the fourth, Nevada, by inaugurating Tasker L. Oddie, now has its first Republican Chief Executive in nearly a score of years.

Following are the states in which new Chief Executives took their offices:

New York—John A. Dix (Dem.), succeeds Horace White (Rep.).

Wisconsin—F. E. McGovern (Rep.), succeeds James Davidson (Rep.).

Michigan—Chas. Osborne (Rep.), succeeds Fred M. Warner (Rep.).

Wyoming—Joseph Carey (Dem.), succeeds B. B. Brooks (Rep.).

Idaho—James H. Hawley (Dem.), succeeds J. H. Brady (Rep.).

Nevada—Tasker L. Oddie (Rep.), succeeds D. C. Dickerson (Dem.).

Governor Dix, the first Democratic Governor in New York in 18 years, took his oath of office amid a brilliant gathering, the great assembly chamber at the Capitol building at Albany being filled with notables. The inauguration of Gov. Osborne, on the other hand, was marked by extreme simplicity. He had appointed no military staff and assumed his position in the parlor of the executive suite before only friends and relatives.

In the states where the advent of the new Governor was marked by a change in the political complexion the tendency to make the inauguration a celebration which was more marked. Republicans from the mountains of Nevada, many of whom were compelled to endure a journey involving long trips by carriages and on horseback, flocked from all portions of the state to witness a Republican take the reins in the highest office in the state.

LITTLE CEREMONY

When Four Judges of Court Of Appeals Take Oath

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 2.—The process of changing Chief Justices and the swearing in four new members of the Court of Appeals this morning were accompanied by as little ceremony as is possible for such an occasion.

Judges Settle, Lassing and Nunn, who were re-elected, and Judge Shackelford Miller, of Louisville, who succeeded Judge Henry S. Barker, were all sworn in open court by Clerk Napier Adams, and Judge Hobson, who succeeds to the chief justiceship because he has been longer on the bench than any of the other judges, was inducted into office without any pomp or ceremony whatever.

NATIVE OF CHRISTIAN

Dies In Paducah After Brief Illness.

Mrs. M. F. Ashbrook, formerly of Christian county, died Monday at her home in Paducah, after a brief illness, of pneumonia, aged 73 years. She was the widow of Jeff Ashbrook, who died nearly thirty years ago. She was a member of the Christian church. The Ashbrooks moved from Christian to McCracken county many years ago.

BIG FIRE IN LITTLE ROCK

Property to Value of $1,000,000 Goes Up in Smoke.

OTHER NEW YEAR FIRES

Granville, N. Y., Hard Hit For Lack of Water Supply.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 3.—Fire, originating in the Hollenberg Musical Company's building, destroyed the entire block of business houses here this morning, the loss of the buildings and stock and goods amounting to $1,000,000.

The burned buildings were owned by Gov. Donaghey, the Fulk estate and the Elizabeth Shall estate. No casualties occurred.

WATER SUPPLY FAILED.

Troy, N. Y., Jan. 4.—The business section of Granville, N. Y., a village of 5,000 inhabitants about fifty miles north of this city, was swept by fire early yesterday with a loss of $300,000. The absolute failure of the water supply at the critical moment owing to a stoppage of the intake pipe at the reservoir which supplies the village gave the flames full sway.

FOUGHT WITH BUCKETS.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 4.—Fire, which started from sparks from a chimney here Monday night caused an estimated loss of $100,000 in the wholesale district.

The hotel seemed doomed, but bucket brigades saved it. The temperature was two degrees above zero.

BIG SANDY RAILROAD.

Engineer, Conductor And Four Other Victims.

Ashland, Ky., Jan. 3.—A wreck on the Miller's Creek branch of the Big Sandy railroad last night resulted in the death of six persons, engineer, conductor and four others. The bodies were brought to Louisa and Ashland this morning.

The dead are: William Akers, brakeman, Cattlettsburg.

John Worley, conductor, Louisa, L. G. Pinson, Van Lear.

F. E. Fugate, Van Lear.

Lemuel Mills, Van Lear.

L. A. Smeltzer, Ironton, O.

The train was in charge of Conductor Worley, and ran into loaded cars on the main line. The property loss to the company is enormous. The line is operated by the Consolidated Coal Company and runs between Miller's Creek, three miles above Paintsville, and Van Lear. A crew had left the cars on the main line track into which the train crashed.

TWO MET DEATH.

Nitroglycerin Set Off With Deathly Effect.

Irvine, Ky., Jan. 3.—Two persons were killed and another probably fatally injured by the explosion of a can of nitroglycerin at the home of Mrs. Joseph Winstead, one mile from Irvine, last Saturday night. The dead are:

Elbert Winstead, aged 15 years.

Sam Spivey, aged 35 years.

Mrs. Joseph Winstead, mother of the dead boy, was so badly hurt by the explosion that her death is expected.

The Winstead boy found an old can containing something and set it by the fire to thaw. Soon after the high explosive let go with a deafening report that was heard for miles around. The Winstead boy and Spivey were instantly killed.

The house was demolished by the explosion and caught fire from the stove, which was blown to pieces.

ANARCHISTS IN LAST FIGHT

Bloody Battle to The Death In The Heart of London.

FOUGHT LIKE BEASTS.

The Desperate Gang Finally Wiped Out by The Aid of Fire.

London, January 4.—Battling to the grim end against desperate odds "Peter the Painter" and "Dutch Fritz," reputed anarchists, went to death yesterday shouting defiance to the laws of England.

It is believed four companions perished with them in the flames that consumed their den in Sydney Street, not far from the heart of London.

This afternoon only the charred bodies of the two desperadoes, wanted for the assassination of three policemen two weeks ago, had been recovered.

When their house had been riddled with bullets from the guns of police and soldiers and set on fire, the trapped men clambered to the roof and there made their last stand firing at the crowds below and jeering their assailants until the upper supports of the building gave way and the outlaws were swallowed up in the seething flames.

Such a battle between officers of the law and criminals seldom has been waged. Discovered in their hiding place, the handful of terrorists stood off the two half companies of Scots Guards from the tower of London, several detachments of armed police, a battery of horse artillery with three machine guns and a gatling gun and a fire brigade until their home was fired.

BEN WATT,

Kentucky Editor Catches on in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 4.—The old adage, "You can't keep a squirrel on the ground," was fully exemplified here when Governor-elect Lee Cruce, himself an expatriated Kentuckian, announced the appointment of Ben Watt, an erstwhile Kentuckian, to the responsible office of executive clerk, one of the choicest places at his disposal. This is a constitutional office, with a fixed term and good salary attached.

Ben Watt, who is an old Bowling Green, Ky., boy, came to Oklahoma several years ago to accept a place on the New-State Tribune, Gov. Haskell's paper in this city. He quickly made good, and retires from the managing editorship of the paper to assume his new State office.

NO WATER

And a Clarksville Residence Was Burned.

Clarksville, Tenn., January 4.—Flames destroyed the home of Mrs. Sam Hyman on Robb Avenue, in this city, Monday at noon. The building and all of the contents except a piano and a few furnishings were totally destroyed, and it is said were only partially covered by insurance. The firemen were unable to render any effective assistance owing to an absence of water, the hydrant nearest the house being entirely useless, while the supply of hose was insufficient to connect another hydrant more removed.

Gov. T. Oddie.

The new Governor of Nevada is named T. Oddie. When the governors hold their next national meeting, the Nevada executive will no doubt find himself warming up to the governors of North and South Carolina.

IN TYPICAL WESTERN STYLE

A Passenger Train Is Held Up Near Ogden And Robbed

KILLED TWO PORTERS.

No Passengers Escaped The Hold-up, The Loss Being $2,000.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 4.—Southern Pacific train No. 1, the Overland Limited, west-bound, was held up by two masked bandits at an early hour yesterday morning at Reese, nine miles west of Ogden. One negro porter, William Davis, was shot and instantly killed, and another porter, A. W. Taylor, was mortally wounded. A passenger was slightly wounded. One hundred passengers on the train were relieved of their valuables. The robbers did not attempt to enter the express car, but devoted their entire attention to the Pullmans, where they made a rich haul among the California-bound passengers, holding the train for more than an hour.

The train proceeded westward. No passengers escaped the robbers, and the trainmen also lost their jewelry and money.

The money loss among the passengers was from $2,000 to $2,500.

EARTHQUAKE COMING

Tremors Noticed at Mobile

For Nearly Two Weeks.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 2.—Almost continuous trembling of the seismograph at the Spring Hill college here has caused Prof. C. Ruhmann to issue a warning of a great seismic upheaval, which he says is sure to come in the immediate future.

Constantly increasing tremors have been recorded at Spring Hill college since Dec. 23, the tendency being south to north and these, says the scientists, forecast a disturbance of great intensity and wide range at no distant date. From the tremors it is believed that the center of the disturbance is about 2,000 miles to the south.

Another Big Horse Sale.

The announcement that the Kentucky Sales Company, Lexington, Ky., will hold their spring sale of saddle horses February 13 to 18, will meet with favorable and ready response from the leading saddle horse breeders from every section. It would be well to write early for space in their catalogue.—Farmers Home Journal.

STOVE.

COAL OIL STOVES.

They have been leaving us owing to the cold snap at a rapid rate. Think today will wind us up on our present stock.

You had better hurry.

Rexall

TRADE MARK

CUT PRICES!

If You Want to Save Money, Visit My Store.

WOOLEN DRESS GOODS

$1.50	Wool Dress Goods	$1.25
1.25	"	1.00
1.00	"	85c
90c	"	75c
75c	"	60c
50c	"	40c

All Broadcloths at FIRST COST.

All Fancy Cloth at FIRST COST for CLOTHING.

T. M. JONES,

Main Street,

Hopkinsville, Ky.

Banking Facilities

WITH ample working capital, exceptional collection arrangements, and a thoroughly organized office system this bank has the ability and disposition to extend to its customers every facility warranted by safe, conservative banking.

Three per cent. interest on Time Certificates of deposit.

BANK OF HOPKINSVILLE

Nat Gaither, President; J. E. McPherson, Cashier;

H. L. McPherson, Asst. Cashier.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

HOPKINSVILLE - - KENTUCKY.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.

Only National Bank in This Community.

Capital.....$75,000.00

Surplus.....25,000.00

Stockholders' Liability.....75,000.00

ISSUES TRAVELER'S CHECKS GOOD IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

HAS A REGULAR SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

Three Per Cent Interest Paid on Savings and Time Deposits

E. B. LONG, President.

W. T. RANDY, Cashier.

JNO. B. TRICE, Vice-President.

CITY BANK & TRUST CO.

CAPITAL STOCK.....$ 60,000.00

SURPLUS EARNED..... 80,000.00

This Bank is prepared to act as Executor, Administrator, Guardian, Trustee, and perform duties in all fiduciary capacities.

THREE PER CENT. ON TIME DEPOSITS.

COUGH!

If you want to, but what's the use when we are offering you a large bottle of

Rexall

TRADE MARK

Cherry Bark Cough Syrup, which we know will benefit you, for only 25 cents.

L. L. ELGIN.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Published Every Other Day,
TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY
MORNINGS, BY
CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

Entered at the Hopkinsville Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

ONE YEAR.....	$2.00
SIX MONTHS.....	1.00
THREE MONTHS.....	.50
SINGLE COPIES.....	.05

Advertising Rates on Application.
212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

Commenting on the Kentuckian's recent reply to a paragraph in the Owensboro Messenger the Courier-Journal says: "The census returns show that the policy that was pursued in Hopkinsville was the very best possible method of dealing with the situation. No town and no county can afford to temporize or compromise with lawlessness. A firm stand for law and order is always to be commented. Hopkinsville suffered in consequence of the night rider attacks, but she would have suffered incomparably worse if her citizens had 'lain down' at the first attack and meekly submitted to subsequent outbreaks. It is greatly to the city's credit that a resolute resistance was shown to night riding, and she deserves all the census shows to have resulted from her course."

With hundreds cheering his wonderful spurt around twelve laps which remained to complete his task. Eugene Estoppey ran a thousand miles in as many consecutive hours at Los Angeles, establishing a new endurance world's record.

Champ Clark, the next speaker, and Oscar Underwood, the next chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, are both natives of Kentucky.

Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve

Is good for anything for which a salve is indicated—Such as pimples, blackheads, sores, chaps, ulcers, sunburn and all skin afflictions. 25¢ at all dealers.

Points About People

PYLE—Mr. Jas. H. Pyle, who lives a few miles from town on the Cadiz road, was kicked by a mule Saturday on his farm, being painfully injured. The mule's feet struck him in the breast. He was confined to his bed for a few days, but is now convalescent.

CRENSHAW—George Crenshaw, another of the best young business men in Cadiz has moved to Hopkinsville and will be associated with J. H. Anderson & Co., in the dry goods department. Mr. Crenshaw was until recently manager of the store Jefferson & Street. He possesses merchantile ability of a high order and has had some valuable experience. Mr. Crenshaw is a son of Dr. J. W. Crenshaw.

EDMONDS—Jay Edmunds, Jr., of Clarksville, has taken a position in Frankel's Busy Store and will have charge of the decorating department. He brings with him much skill and experience in this line, having been with McNeal & Edwards in Clarksville. The Frankels are fortunate in securing so valuable a man, but having been trained for a successful career it is but natural that he should prefer to engage in business in a large city.

Eczema, Ringworm,

Tetter, chapped hands or lips, boils, sores and all skin diseases are quickly cured by the use of Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve. 25¢ a box at all dealers. A creamy snow-white ointment.

SIX LOSES THEIR LIVESIn Collision at Van Lear, Near Paintsville, Ky.

Ashland, Ky., Jan. 2.—Six persons were killed in a collision on the Miller's Creek railway, near Van Lear, above Paintsville, last night. Four of the victims of the wreck were passengers and two were trainmen.

Millions of Bottles of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey used annually is good evidence that it is a good remedy for LaGrippe, coughs, colds, and all throat and bronchial troubles. Look for the Bell on the bottle. Sold everywhere.

Those Bad Spells.

Lebanon Jct., Ky.—Mrs. Minnie Lamb, of this place, says: "I believe I would have been dead by now, had it not been for Cardui. I haven't had one of those bad spells since I commenced to use this medicine." Cardui is a specific medicine for the ills from which women suffer. Made from harmless, vegetable ingredients Cardui is a safe, reliable remedy, and has been successfully used by weak and ailing women for more than fifty years. Thousands of women have been helped back to health and happiness by its use. Why not profit by their experience? A trial will convince you that Cardui is just what you need.

Y. M. C. A. FOR NEGROESCities Raising $75,000 Will Get $25,000.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Julius Rosenwald has agreed to give $25,000 to every city in the United States that will raise $75,000, the whole to be used in building a Y. M. C. A. for negroes. He has given this amount for a Chicago institution of this character. He believes Y. M. C. A. buildings for negroes will help solve the race problem.

A Medicine

That lives ten years must have merit. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey has been sold for sixteen years, and sales have increased every year. So you run no risk. We guarantee it. At all dealers.

His Wife's FirstAnd Third Husband.

Wellington, Kan., Jan. 4.—Miles Park, his wife's first and third husband, is dead here at the age of 80.

Park was married in Washington county, Ohio, in 1852. In 1876 he left his wife and three children and went in search of a fortune to the Black Hills of Dakota. He was reported killed by Indians.

Mihor Harrod, a Kansas farmer, visiting in Ohio in 1884, met Park's supposed widow, married her and came to live near here. Park, returning to Ohio in 1901, learned his wife was still alive. He did not, however, make known to her the fact that he was also alive until in 1907, when Harrod died. He then came to Kansas, recourted his wife and last year remarried her.

When You See The Bell

On the bottle you have our guarantee that you are getting the best cough and cold remedy. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey has millions of satisfied users. At all dealers.

Bank With Royal Depositors.

The English banking world is congratulating itself upon the receipt of a large and acceptable account. In fact, King Manuel of Portugal has honored the house of Coutts on the Strand with the deposit of his private fortune, and England is so much richer for Manuel's loss. This firm of Coutts is a remarkable establishment, by the way, for it has attracted the patronage of nearly all the royalty which has had occasion to leave money in London. Every English king from George II. to the present George has kept his wealth in their vaults, and Louis Philippe, the Shah of Persia and Leopold of Belgium have all patronized the Coutts.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

It is a house-hold word in every state in the Union as well as in several foreign countries. For Grippe, Coughs, Colds, Asthma and throat trouble it is the best. Sold everywhere. Look for the bell on the bottle.

How It Looked to Him.
Mrs. Dresser was looking over the grocer's bill.

"How many pounds are there in a peck, Henry?" she asked.

Her husband looked up from his newspaper.

"Are you trying to figure out the weight of your latest coiffure, my dear?" he asked.

What Can We Say

More than if you are not satisfied after using Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve we will refund your money, 25¢ at all dealers.

The Voice of Experience.
The oleomargarine dealers tell us that there is more real virtue in their product than in butter.

Yet we have known considerable butter that seemed amply able to resist temptation.

It certainly was strong enough.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He Never Got His Money back. Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve cured his eyes and he did not want it. Painless and harmless. 25¢ at all dealers.

PREFERRED LOCALS.

FOR SALE—Set Carpenter's tools.
Apply to Saxe McCormick.

J. B. Fisher, The Tinner.

Shop on Seventh street, over Metcalfe's laundry.

$50,000

To loan on first-class real estate security. The T.S. KNIGHT & CO.

Partridge Wyandotte Cockerels, pure bred stock, for sale. Apply to JNO. W. GARNETT, R. F. D. 2, Hopkinsville, Ky.

A Cash Offer.

The Kentuckian has made a special clubbing rate with The Memphis Weekly Commercial Appeal by which we will furnish both papers for one year for the very low subscription price of $2.25. The Commercial Appeal is one of the largest and best papers in the South, and we hope to receive many new subscriptions on this offer: $2.25 cash for both papers.

Farmers' Almanac for 1911.

The First National Bank has a special edition of this popular almanac. In addition to the usual varied and useful information, it contains Kentucky game laws and other matter of local interest. They are distributing them free to first callers, especially to farmers. They also have their usual business calendar for the new year for general distribution.

Five PercentFarm Loans

A special representative of the largest loan company in the United States will be at the office of JOHN T. EDMUND, ATTORNEY, every FIRST AND THIRD MONDAY and will make LOANS ON GOOD FARM LAND in Christian and adjoining counties AT FIVE PER CENT. If you desire a loan either call or address a letter to SPECIAL LOAN AGENT, P. O. Box 417, Hopkinsville, K.

FARMERS' WEEK.Lexington, Ky., January 2-7.

1911.

The Illinois Central will sell round trip tickets to Lexington, Ky., account the above occasion at the rate of $7.78 for the round trip. Dates of sale January 2 to 7, inclusive. Tickets limited returning to reach original starting point not later than midnight of Jan. 9, 1911.

T. L. Morrow, Agent.

Homeseekers'

Excursion fares to points in Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, Utah, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Arizona, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mexico, New Mexico, Wyoming. The Illinois Central will sell round-trip home-seekers excursion tickets to points in the above named states every first and 3rd Tuesday at very reasonably reduced rates. For further information call on, write or phone ticket agent Illinois Central, Cumb. 45-2

STATEMENT OF CONDITION

OF

BANK OF HOPKINSVILLE

At the Close of Business

Dec. 31, 1910.

RESOURCES:

Loans and Discounts.....$316 185 56
Banking House.....23 000 00
Stocks and Bonds.....84 500 00
Sight Exchange.....48 492 89
Cash.....52 980 06

$525 158 51

LIABILITIES:

Capital Stock.....$100 000 00
Surplus Fund.....40 000 00
Undivided Profits.....3 268 89
Due Depositors.....374 157 84
Due Other Banks.....4 590 78
Dividends Unpaid.....141 00
Dividend No. 91, this day.....3 000 00

$525 158 51

J. E. MCPHERSON, Cashier.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Jan. 2, 1911.

CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Dec. 31st, 1910.

Planters Bank and Trust Co.RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts.....$311,877.99
Mortgages.....25,696.00
Stocks and Bonds.....33,100.00
Overdrafts.....3,545.69
Office Furniture and Fixtures.....12,769.72
Banking House and Lot.....22,800.00
Cash and Sight Exchange.....115,664.90
Real Estate.....15,070.69

$539,825.78

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock.....$144,700.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits.....18,614.95
Net Earnings past six months.....4,514.88
Due Banks (Deposits).....5,703.18
Due Individual Depositors.....324,232.77
Bills Payable.....42,000.00

$539,825.78

A. H. ECKLES, Cashier.

CONDENSED STATEMENT

OF THE

CITY BANK AND TRUST CO.

AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS ON Dec. 31st, 1910.

ASSETS.

Loans.....$333,110.93
Overdrafts.....979.67
Bonds.....111,650.00
Banking House.....17,000.00
Real Estate for Debt.....1,650.00
Office Furn'e. & Fixtures.....3,000.00
Cash and Exchange for Clearings.....42,636.11
Sight Exchange.....106,732.56

$616,759.27

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock.....$60,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits.....85,110.55
Dividend No. 61, this day 5 per cent.....3,000.00
Deposits.....462,853.01
Due Banks.....5,795.71
Certified Checks.....500.00

$616,759.27

W. T. TANDY, Cashier.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE BANK OF CROFTON

BANK doing business at the town of Crofton, County of Christian, State of Kentucky, at the close of business on the 15th day of December, 1910.

RESOURCES.

1. Loans and Discounts.....$72,590.19
2. U. S. and other Bonds, Stocks and Securities.....2,617.79
3. Due from Banks.....2,890.47
4. Actual Cash on hand.....1,985.18
5. Checks, cash items and exchange for clearing.....985.18
6. Overdrafts—Secured, $0; Unsecured, $134.82;.....134.82
7. Current expenses and taxes paid.....1,919.66
8. Real Estate, $5,000; Furniture and Fixtures, $1,500; Total.....6,500.00
9. Other Assets not included under any of the above heads.....

$153,966.57

State of Kentucky, County of Christian, sc.

I, J. W. Cross, cashier of the above named Bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

J. W. Cross, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. W. Cross this 24th day of Dec. 1910.

John H. Pendleton, Notary Public.

My Commission expires Feb. 11, 1914.

Eldon Crutchfield, Correct Attest

W. H. Jones, T. D. James, Directors.

Tennessee Central

Time Table No. 1 Taking Effect

SUNDAY, July 10, 1910.

EAST BOUND

No. 12 Leave Hopkinsville 6:30 a.m.
Arrive Nashville...9:30 a.m.
No. 14 Leave Hopkinsville 4:00 p.m.
Arrive Nashville...7:15 p.m.

WEST BOUND

No. 11 Leave Nashville...8:15 a.m.
Arrive Hopkinsville 11:20 a.m.
No. 13 Leave Nashville...5:05 p.m.
Arrive Hopkinsville 8:15 p.m.
T. L. MORROW, Agent.

Time Table.

No. 57.

In effect Oct 29, 1910.

NORTH BOUND. ARRIVES
No. 332—Evansville Accommodation..... 5:40 a.m.
No. 302—Evansville—Mattoon Express..... 11:25 a.m.
No. 340 Princeton mixed... 4:15 p.m.

SOUTH BOUND ARRIVES
No. 341—Hopkinsville mixed 9:15 a.m.
No. 321—Evansville—Hopkinsville mail 3:50 p.m.
No. 301—Evansville—Hopkinsville Express..... 6:40 p.m.

Train No. 332 connects at Princeton for Paducah, St. Louis, and way stations, also runs through to Evansville.

Train No. 302 connects at Princeton for Louisville, Cincinnati, way stations and all points East, also runs through to Evansville.

Trains No. 340 and 341, local trains between Hopkinsville and Princeton.

T. L. MORROW, Agent.

TIME TABLE.

TRAIN GOING NORTH.

No. 52—St. Louis Express, 9:51 a.m.
No. 54—St. L. Fast Mail, 10:23 p.m.
No. 92—C. & St. L. Lim., 5:25 a.m.
No. 56—Hopkinsville Ac. 8:55 p.m.
No. 94—Dixie Flyer, 6:18 p.m.
No. 90—Evansville—Hopkinsville Accommodation 4:20 p.m.

TRAIN GOING SOUTH.

No. 51—St. L. Express 5:35 p.m.
No. 53—St. L. Fast Mail 5:33 a.m.
No. 93—C. & N. O. Lim., 11:56 p.m.
No. 55—Hopkinsville Ac. 7:05 a.m.
No. 95—Dixie Flyer, 9:28 a.m.
No. 91—Evansville—Hopkinsville Accommodation 9:10 a.m.

No. 52 and 54 connect at St. Louis and other points west.

No. 51 connects at Guthrie for Memphis in points as far south as Erin and for Louisville, Cincinnati and the East.

No. 53 and 55 make direct conn. at Guthrie for Louisville, Cincinnati and all point north and east thereof. No. 53 and 55 also connect for Memphis and way points.

No. 92 runs through to Chicago and will not carry passengers to point South of Evansville. Also carries through sleepers to St. Louis.

No. 93 through sleepers to Atlanta, Macon, Jacksonville, St. Augustine and Tampa, Fla. Also Pullman sleepers to New Orleans. Connects at Guthrie for points East and West. No. 93 will not carry local passengers for points North Nashville Tenn.

J. C. HOOE, Agt.

60 YEARS EXPERIENCE

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS

COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description, has quickly a report from our office free of charge. Communication is probably pecuniary. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency in the country. Please send special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year for four months. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, NEW YORK

Branch Office, 556 F St., Washington, D.C.

MADAME DEAN'S FRENCH FEMALE PILLS.

A safe, certain relief for suppressed menstruation, never known to fail. Safe! Sure! Sure! It is safe! Action guaranteed. Money refunded if not perfectly satisfied. With these pills you will be relieved. Samples Free. If your druggist does not have them send your orders to the UNITED MEDICAL CO., BOX T4, LANCASHIRE, ENGLAND.

Sold in Hopkinsville by the Anderson

Fowler Drug Co.

Incorporated

Market Report.

Corrected Dec. 26, 1910.

RETAIL GROCERY PRICES.

Country lard, good color and clean, 15c per pound

Country bacon, 15c per pound

Black-eyed peas, $3.50 per bushel

Country shoulders, 12c per pound

Country hams, 20c per pound

Irish potatoes, $1.00 per bushel

Northern eating Burbank potatoes, $1.00 per bushel

Northern eating Rural potatoes $1.00 per bushel

Potatoes, Irish, 25c per peck

Sweet potatoes, $1.20 per bushel

Yellow eating onions, $1.00 per bushel

Red eating onions, $1.00 per bushel

Dried Navy beans, $3.00 per bushel

Cabbage, New 5 and 10 cents a head

Dried Lima beans, 7c per pound

Country dried apples, 10c per pound

Country dried peaches, 10c per pound

Daisy cream cheese, 25c per pound

Full cream brick cheese, 25c per pound

Full cream Limberger cheese, 25c per pound

Popcorn, dried on ear, 2c per pound

Fresh Eggs 40c per doz

Choice lots fresh, well-worked country butter, in pound prints, 30c

FRUITS.

Lemons, 25c per dozen

Navel Oranges, 25c, 30c, 45c per doz

Bananas, 20c and 25c doz

New York State apples $4.50 to $5.00 per barrel

Cash Price Paid For Produce.

POULTRY.

Dressed hens, 12c per pound

Dressed cocks, 7c per pound

live hens, 7c per pound; live cocks, 3c per pound; live turkeys, 16c per pound

Dressed geese, 11c per pound for choice lots, live 5c

Fresh country eggs, 30 cents per dozen

Fresh country butter 25c lb.

A good demand exists for spring chickens, and choice lots of fresh country butter*

HAY AND GRAIN.

Choice timothy hay, $17.00

No. 1 timothy hay, $20.00

No. 2 timothy hay, $20.00

Choice clover hay, $14.00

No. 1 clover hay, $14.00

No. 2 clover hay, $12.00

Clean, bright straw hay, $6.00

Alfalfa hay, $16.00

White seed oats, 42c

Black seed oats, 40c

Mixed seed oats, 41c

No. 2 white corn, 50c

No. 2 mixed corn, 50c

Winter wheat bran, $22.00

Chops, $3.50.

ROOTS, HIDES, WOOL AND TALLOW.

Prices paid by wholesale dealers to butchers and farmers:

Roots—Southern ginseng, $5.75 lb

"Golden Seal" yellow root, $1.35 lb

Mayapple, 3c; pink root, 12c and 13c

Tallow—No. 1, 4c; No. 2, 4c

Wool—Burry, 10c to 17c; Clear

Grease, 21c. medium, tub washed, 28c to 30c; coarse, dingy, tubwashed, 28c to 30c; white duck, 22c to 35c, new.

Feathers—Prime white goose, 50c;

dark and mixed old goose, 15c to 30c;

gray mixed, 15c to 30c; white duck, 22c to 35c, new.

Hides and Skins—These quotations are for Kentucky hides. Southern green hides 8c. We quote assorted lots dry flint, 12c to 14c. 9-10 better demand

Cockerels.

A few young Barred Plymouth Rock cockerels for sale—late hatch—at only $1 if taken at once. Ring Cumb. phone 94, Home 1222.

HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN.

THE EAVESDROPPER

By ABRAHAM R. GROH

(Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.)

No cloud had marred the horizon of hope for Marian Moore and Richard Kingsley during the year they were engaged. And the first one that appeared was so large that it seemed to overshadow the whole sky in an instant and to give promise of nothing but long and sure storm.

One afternoon Marian passed the Sidwell home and heard through an open window the voice of her fiance. His mere presence there was unexpected, considering his often expressed dislike for Eleanor Sidwell. But the words which he uttered were almost beyond belief. Had Miss Moore not heard them with her own ears nothing in the world could have persuaded her that he had spoken them. The words were these:

"I love you, darling, more than I ever dreamed of loving any woman before. We are here alone now and I will tell you the truth. Then, if you still wish to drive me from you I must go. But you shall first know my real feelings."

Following this impassioned declaration, Marian heard the voice of Eleanor. It was lower than his but full of tenderness. Moreover, it was distinctly audible.

"Dick, are you sure that you love me?"

Stunned though Marian had been at first, she now regained her self-possession sufficiently to walk on. Her ears fairly tingled. She moved mechanically, and, hardly knowing where she went, found herself at home. She entered the house, hurried to her room, threw herself on the bed and gave way to bitter weeping. Relieved by tears, she looked the situation in the face.

Marian Moore was a young woman of strong character. She took pen and paper, and after tearing up many notes, finally was satisfied with one which read:

"Mr. Richard Kingsley—I cannot see you tonight nor ever in the future. I have learned all—fortunately before it was too late. Never address me again."

When Dick Kingsley received this note he was stunned for a moment. He read the letter a dozen times. At first he couldn't believe his eyes. Then he decided it was a joke.

He rushed to a telephone and called up Marian. His heart beat hard as he waited. At last he heard her voice.

"This you, Marian?" he cried, trying to assume a heartless air. "What was a great joke you played on me. I just received your note. It gave me an awful start at first. But I see it now. Ha-ha."

His forced gaiety was sadly smoothed, however, when he heard the voice of Miss Moore, very cold and inexorable, saying:

"It was not a joke, Mr. Kingsley. I assure you. I wrote the note and I meant every word of it. Goodby."

The receiver was hung up.

Richard Kingsley sat down and sought himself to be calm. He looked about him to make sure he was in his right senses. He knew he had felt Miss Moore two evenings before in the best of spirits. His heart throbbed with tenderness as he remembered the picture of her pretty self silhouetted in the light from the half open door as they said good night. What, then, had changed her in this short time?

"Oh, I can't endure this nightmare!" he groaned.

He hurried out and to the home of his fiancee.

"Miss Moore is not in," said the maid at the door.

But Richard Kingsley in his present mood was not to be deceived or put off by a social conventionality.

"I must see her," he said.

He seated himself in the drawing room and waited. It was a long time until he heard the familiar step. She appeared at the door and looked at him unsmilingly, inquiringly. There was a suspicion of redness about her eyes, but she looked as firm as fate.

Dick arose and hurried toward her.

"Marian, this is some awful joke," he cried.

She held up a forbidding hand.

"Please do not come near me, Mr. Kingsley," she said, coldly. "You have forced your way into the house and compelled me to see you again."

"Marian, this is some awful joke," he cried.

She held up a forbidding hand.

"Please do not come near me, Mr. Kingsley," she said, coldly

CURRENT

COMMENT

CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY — Generally fair and not so cold Thursday.

Oldest Paper.

The Scioto Gazette, the oldest American newspaper without change of name, has celebrated its one hundred and tenth anniversary with a handsomely illustrated historical edition. The Gazette made its initial appearance in Chillicothe in 1800, and it has been issued every since on its announced publication day.

This veteran Ohio newspaper was first "pulled off" on an old hand press in a log cabin in the little village then the capital of the Northwestern Territory. Its first editor was Nathaniel Willis, grandfather of the poet of the same name.

The present owners of the paper, one of the brightest and best evening daily papers in Ohio, are G. W. C. Perry and David Meade Massie. Mr. Perry is a member of the family that gave Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry and Commodore Mathew C. Perry to the country, and Mr. Massie is a grandson of Gen. Nathaniel Massie, founder of Chillicothe.

There's historic interest and distinction, and there too, is quality to match—Cleveland Ledger.

Second Largest Diamond.

Mrs. Edward B. McLean, daughter of the late Thomas F. Walsh, has created a sensation in fashionable circles by wearing what is said to be the second largest diamond in the world as a pendant and another of enormous size in a bandeau about her forehead.

The McLean jewel is more than two inches long and of oval shape, worn on the end of a short neck chain and suspended below an enormous emerald. Mrs. McLean wears the huge stone and the forehead bandeau with a black velvet gown, and her appearance at the theater and other entertainments has caused something of a sensation.

County Clerk's Report.

County Clerk Stowe's report for the year 1910 shows that during the year there were 1,074 deeds lodged for record; 603 real estate mortgages were recorded; 744 chattel mortgages and powers of attorney; 207 privilege licenses issued; total amount remitted to the state auditor $8,471.50; marriage licenses issued 392.

Three Join Elks Lodge.

At the meeting of the Elks lodge Tuesday night Messrs. Jas. P. Thompson, W. H. Jesup and Jas. M. Carter were initiated into the order. Congressman Ben Johnston and Mr. Burnside, a traveling man from Ohio, were present as visitors. In spite of the cold weather, about 40 were in attendance.

Monster Hog.

Mr. Charles Goodrum, who lives near the city on the Fishman Mill Pike, holds the record for having killed the biggest hog ever raised in Warren county. During the present cold snap he butchered a porker that weighed 875 pounds. The hog was of a fine quality, and Mr. Goodrum secured the top price for it.—Bowling Green Messenger.

A Strong Team.

Messrs. M. F. Crenshaw and E. C. Radford have formed a partnership in the real estate and farm insurance business. This is a strong team and it is safe to predict a successful career for them. Their office is in the Dalton Building, East Seventh street. Attention is called to their card, which appears in this issue.

$100 REWARD $100.

"The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity, Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for the case that it fails to cure. Send or wire monies."

Address F. J. O'LEARY & CO., Toledo, O.
Paid by all FARMERS, 75¢
McGraw-Hill's Pills for constipation
for Clarksville's New Mayor.

Mayor M. R. Hanner succeeded Mayor M. C. Northington in Clarksville this week and in a message to the Council declares for law enforcement and recommends various improvements.

In Tennessee.

The Tennessee Senator organized with Nat Baxter, as President, Democrats in control. In the House the fusionists with 53 votes elected A. M. Leach, of Clarksville, speaker, the Democrats trying to break a quorum.

Esq. Jarrell.

Squire Joe Jarrell, of Clarksville, has been elected to the office of Journal clerk in the Tennessee Senate, the job carrying a salary of $6.00 a day.

Will Pool 1911 Wool Crop.

The 1911 wool crop will be pooled owing to the success which followed the pool of last year. The wool pooled that year amounted to 200,000 pounds and it is expected that 500,000 pounds will be disposed of this year.

Still Finding Indictments

Judge Blair held court until late last night to receive confessions of the Adams county, O., election bribe takers. The grand jury returned 183 indictments, which brings the total indictments to 1,431.

And Still It's High.

The coal production of the United States for 1910 was between 475,000,000 and 485,000,000 short tons. This is approximately within 1 per cent. of the maximum record 1907.

FRIENDSHIP HALL

Will be Used For Colored High School Temporarily.

The trustees of the colored graded common school are much pleased at the interest the people are taking in their schools. The United Brothers of Friendship, a substantial local secret organization which owns the building in which the building in which the high school department has been conducted since opening school last fall, met Tuesday night and manifested their interest in upbuilding the school by contributing the use of said building, free of rental, the remainder of the school term, also back rent for two months. It is needless to say that the trustees appreciate this generosity. The building had cost them $10 per month. The colored high school now has about 40 pupils.

Parson's Poem A Gem.

From Rev. H. Stubenvoll, Allison, Ia., in praise of Dr. King's New Life Pills.

"They're such a health necessity, in every home these pills should be. If other kinds you've tried in vain,

USE DR. KING'S

And be well again. Only 25¢ at all Druggists.

WITH GUNBOAT HORNET

Truxillo, Honduras, Proves Easy For The Revolutionists.

New Orleans, Jan. 3.—A dispatch from Puerto Barrios to the Picayune announces the capture of Truxillo, Honduras, by the revolutionary gunboat Hornet. The Garrison at Ruatan surrendered without firing a shot, according to the dispatch, and the government troops joined the revolutionists.

"After the Hornet left New Orleans," says the Picayune's correspondent, "The vessel picked up 100 men, 1,000 rifles, two machine guns and a large quantity of ammunition. The Hornet arrived at LaGuan LaGracis December 28, proceeded to the Island of Bonaca, where a base of operations was established, then captured the bay islands."

Typhoid Pneumonia.

A 2-year-old child of Jerry Owen, col., died of typhoid pneumonia Tuesday night.

INHERITANCE TAX

Revenue Agent Brings Suit Against Latham Executors.

State Revenue Agent Earl C. Huntsman has filed a suit in the Christian Circuit Court against the executors of John C. Latham, deceased, to collect an inheritance tax of $5 per $1,000 from the Latham estate for the bequests left to the city of Hopkinsville. This applies to the real estate, which is assessed at $18,500, and perhaps some other bequests.

HAS ENOUGH.

Aviator Radley Escapes Close Call And Decides To Sell.

James Radley, the English aviator, began the last day of the Los Angeles aviation meet with a narrow escape from death.

Radley's encounter with the air currents was unexpected. He was totally unprepared for it, but regained control of the machine and immediately landed. A few minutes later he accepted an offer from a purchaser to buy his machine. He said he would fly at the San Francisco meet, but that after he might abandon the sport that had claimed so many victims.

ALL THE SAME.

The Elopers Will Find A Way To Wed.

The Bristol, Tenn., Ministerial Association adopted resolutions pledging its members, more than twenty in number, not to marry eloping couples on Tennessee soil, contrary to the laws of the state from which either or both of the elopers come.

The resolution condemns the hundreds of hasty and "indecent" marriages of elopers here annually, and memorializes the Tennessee legislature to pass laws to prohibit them. One local "marrying parson" has married nearly 4,000 eloping couples from Virginia and West Virginia, where the laws prohibit the marriage of persons under 21 years of age without parental consent.

AMUSEMENTS

"A Breezy Affair" and "In Jungle Land," two big musical comedy burlesques will be introduced at Holland's Opera House Tuesday night; Jan. 10, by the California Girls' Company, introducing a bevy of pretty girls and a host of clever comedians, introducing comedy, opera, burlesque, travesty and vaudeville features. The vaudeville features are as follows: Rose Lewis, flying trapeze, Queen of the Air; Boss & Boss, European novelty act; Ida Bell, dainty singing and dancing soubrette; Trueheart, Dillon & Burke, eccentric comedy trio; Hazel Grant, comedienne, Johnson & Lambert, German comedians and Mille Carina & Co., Cleopatra dancer.

Examination of County Pupils.

The examination for county school graduates will be held on Friday and Saturday, January 27 and 28. The examination will be held in this city and it is imperative that all pupils intending to enter the high school shall take this examination as the certificate of proficiency is necessary to gain entrance to the high school.

JENNIE WEST,
County Superintendent

The picture show at the Western Asylum is now in operation. Supt. Sights will exercise care in selecting the pictures that will be shown and only those entirely devoid of the suggestion of crime, killing, suicides and wrong of any kind, will be shown. Those which will amuse and entertain the patients will be used and the new feature is expected to do much good.

When you want fire, tornado, life or bond insurance in the... Oldest and Strongest Companies, see H. D. WALLACE, office up stairs, over Anderson - Fowler drug store, corner Ninth and Main, or

Office 395
Residence 644

Don't Worry--Hat.

Memphis, Tenn.—Mrs. Emma D. Looney, of this place, says: "I suffered misery for nearly eight years, but since taking Cardui, I am much stronger, and I haven't missed a single meal. I hardly know how to express my gratitude." Don't worry about your symptoms—Cardui doesn't treat them. What you need is strength. Cardui helps you to get it. Take Cardui, because other tonics and medicines do not contain its peculiar and successful ingredients, imported especially for its manufacture. Half a century of success, has stamped Cardui with the seal of public approval. During this time, Cardui has benefited a million women. Why not you? Try it, today.

Oldest Clerk Dead.

James S. Dean, who was said to be the oldest railway mail clerk in active service, died at Kingston, N. Y., at the age of 79 years.

NEARLY $2,000,000.

Of Cash Deposited In Christian County's 8 Banks.

The four banks of Hopkinsville have cash deposits aggregating $1,471,809.07, as shown by their statements Dec. 31. In addition to the many due depositors, the four banks in other towns in the county show aggregate deposits of $300,817.33, making a grand total for the eight banks of Christian county of $1,772,626.40.

If cash deposited in banks is any index to a county's prosperity, this showing indicates that Christian county is prosperous in the highest degree.

Here and There

Layne & Leavell, of this city, sold a pair of two year-old mules, a few days ago, to Clifton W. Garrott, of Bell, for $525. They measured 16 hands and one inch and together weighed 2,100 lbs. They were the finest mules ever seen in Kentucky, which is headquarters for mules in Western Kentucky.

See J. H. Dagg for contracting building and general repair work of all kinds. Phone 476.

They say all whiskey is good whiskey, only some is better than others—"Some" means "Harper," the others are "alsorans." Call for Harper at

W. R. LONG'S,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

SHATTERED HAND

Of Mr. Flaherty Had to be Amputated.

The wounds in the hand of Mike Flaherty, who accidentally shot himself while out hunting near the city last Saturday, were of such a character that amputation of the thumb became necessary and his hand was taken off by surgeons Tuesday. He is now getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

DR. BELL'S ANTI-PAIN

For Internal and External Pains.

M. F. CRENSHAW
E. C. RADFORD

CRENSHAW & RADFORD

REAL ESTATE AGENTS

—AND—

FARM INSURANCE

If you desire to sell or buy Real Estate it will pay you to see us.

OFFICE—Dalton Building, 7th St.

How About That Cough of Yours? Well, our Cough Syrup is prepared by our special formula; it is made up of ingredients that give quick relief and a cure to all deep-seated or light coughs and colds.

Call for our

Mentholated Cough Syrup==

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Cook & Higgins

Incorporated.

2 Stores For Your Convenience

Be Comfortable!

What About That New

HEATING STOVE

That would make your home comfortable these cold days? We can put one in for you from $8.00 up for a nice Nickel-trimmed, Air Tight Heater. Better think about that at once.

LAP ROBES

It does not make any difference what kind you like best, if you do not find it here you will find a kind you like better. Prices are from $2.00 to $15.00.

FOOT WARMERS

Keep your feet as warm as if you were by an open fire. They make driving and sleighing very pleasant this cold weather. Do not go out for another ride without one of these under your soles. Prices $1.50 to $2.50.

HORSE BLANKETS-STORM FRONTS

and other necessities for winter.
Come in and see them to-day.

F. A. Yost Company,

214-216 SOUTH MAIN.

The Blizzard

That is coming from the North ought to remind you of our heavy 52-inch Storm Overcoats, Warm Underwear and High Top Shoes.

OUR VALUES are the BEST
OUR PRICES are the LOWEST

to be had. You will make no mistake by coming here before you buy.

Wall & McGowan

SUCCESSORS TO J. T. WALL & CO.

SUPREME COURT REORGANIZED

And Hands Down Four Important Long Pending Decisions.

ONE AFFECTS KENTUCKY

Panama Libel Case is Quashed And No Jurisdiction Was Taken.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The oath of office was administered yesterday to Judge Willis Van Devanter of Wyoming, and Judge Joseph R. Lamar, as Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States. For the first time in nineteen months the bench is now completed.

The Court unanimously decided that the Government had no right to prosecute the so-called Panama libel suit against the Press Publishing Company—the New York World. The opinion was delivered by Chief Justice White.

The Court upheld the decision of the Court of Appeals in the famous Eastern Kentucky land grants which were effected under the revenue and taxation law passed by the Legislature in 1906. Justice Day wrote the opinion.

The Alabama labor contract law was declared unconstitutional. The Government claimed the law reduced some negroes to a state akin to peonage.

The Court declared the bank guaranty laws of Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas to be constitutional.

Purely Personal

John Thurmond, who recently leased his home place near Gracey for a term of years, has moved his family to this city to reside. They have taken rooms with the family of G. W. Wiley, East Seventh street.

Jas. H. Ware, has resigned his position with the Frisco at Enid, Okla., to accept a place with the L & N., with headquarters at Knoxville, Tenn. Mr. Ware and his family are visiting the family of Judge W. P. Winfree, enroute to Knoxville.

Howard Garner has resigned his position with Irving Roseborough Co., and will probably go to Louisville to reside.

Miss Lillian Brasher has returned from a visit to Arlington, Ky.

Ben Webb, of Montana, is here on a visit to friends.

John Barr has returned to school at Campbell, Va.

Fairleigh Ware, who spent the holidays at home, has returned to Culver, Ind.

Miss Mollie Nichols, has resigned her position with Bassett & Co. and has accepted a similar place with the Franklins.

Miss Myrte Mobley, of Clarksville, is the guest of Miss Katie Mae West.

Miss Agnes Pursley, of Boise City, Idaho, has arrived in the city on a visit to her father, Mr. J. W. Pursley.

Miss Mary West, of Hopkinsville, was the guest of friends in the city, while attending the Shriners attraction, "Miss Nobody From Starland," and the girls' dance.—Earlington Bee.

Mr. Cecil F. Wolfe and wife, accompanied by their friend, Mrs. Chalker, are visiting his father, Mr. W. R. Wolfe. We understand they are enjoying their stay very much. Mr. Cecil Wolfe resides in Atlanta, where he is engaged in the automobile business, which requires his constant attention so that he can only spend a few days.—Titusville, Fla., Star.

Mr. Wolfe is a nephew of Messrs. John J. and W. A. Reed, of this county, and was reared near Gracey.

Mrs. Fannie May Owsley and her two sons, have returned from a visit of several weeks in Cuba.

Mr. T. S. Brindine, editor of the Russellville Democrat, was in the city Tuesday on business.

G. W. Shadoin and wife left this morning for Talladega, Ala., where the latter will spend the remainder of the winter with her parents.

Asa Coffey, has taken a position as traveling representative with the Forbes Manufacturing Co.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday at three o'clock, at the Methodist church.

Raymond Skerritt, who has been paper carrier for the Anderson-Fowler Drbg Co., will leave for Nashville to enter school and Leslie East, of Kelly, will take his place as carrier.

LOST—A $250 gold piece, date 1849, mounted as a brooch; reward if returned to Mrs. George N. Duffer.

WANTED—Manager to look after west half of Kentucky on new census proposition. Salary or commission. Address,

R. S. MERCER,
Centralia, Illinois.

714 East First South St.

$2,200 to loan on first class real estate.

DR. A. H. EDWARDS.

MULES WANTED.

Wanted to buy 100 head good, fat, aged mules at my barn on East Ninth St. Hopkinsville, Ky. Must be sound.

RICHARD LEAVELL.

CONDENSED STATEMENT.

of the

First National Bank

Hopkinsville, Ky.

At the Close of Business

Dec. 31st, 1910.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts.....	$327,361.94
Overdrafts.....	192.39
U. S. Bonds.....	76,000.00
Other Bonds.....	5,000.00
Banking House, Furniture and Fixtures	22,000.00
Cash and Sight Exchange.....	101,300.37
Total	$531,854.70

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock.....	$ 75,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits	26,237.25
National Bank Notes.....	74,400.00
Rediscounts.....	41,000.00
Individual Deposits.....	311,005.45
U. S. Deposits.....	1,000.00
Unpaid Dividends.....	212.00
Dividend No. 41, this day.....	3,000.00
Total	$531,854.70

THOS. W. LONG, Cashier.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Refined and Adapted for Ladies and Children

Program Changed Every Day.

Matinee Daily
2 to 5 p. m.

Evenings
7 to 10.

ADMISSION:
10 Cts., Children 5 Cts.

Job Printing

We are here to serve you with anything in the line of printed stationery for your business and personal use. □ □ □

Letter Heads Bill Heads
Envelopes Cards
Wedding Invitations
Posters or Announcements
Of All Kinds

The best quality of work at prices that are RIGHT

What Fashion Does

"Make it strong!" ordered the young woman who had dropped in just at tea-time. "In my present condition I need strengthening."

"You don't look particularly fragile," scoffed the hostess. "What's the trouble?"

"Hats!" said the visitor sepulchrally. "There really isn't any use of saying any more than that one word, but I am so filled with emotion that I've got to get it out of my system. For the last two years every time I've gone to buy a hat I've had to be resuscitated with kind words and the assurance that they never can be worse than they are now, so hope on!" But at last I've given up hope.

"I fully expect that some day when I go to buy a hat the lovely golden-haired salesperson will trot out a baby grand piano with its insides excavated and a fringe of tin cans around the edge and laughingly tell me it's the 'vur-ry latest style.' That's about the only thing they haven't sold us in the guise of headgear! We've worn cartwheels and peach baskets and bushel baskets and pancakes on our benighted heads and we're pretty well trained and humble and all that—but today almost finished me!"

"You see, if you can get used to this winter's hats gradually the shock isn't so bad, but when they burst upon you in one overwhelming explosion with no warning it may be almost fatal."

"All summer and fall I've been over in a Michigan summer resort, where we didn't wear hats at all. You rather forget that there are such things, together with trolley cars and city noises. I saw pictures of hats in the newspaper advertisements, but somehow they didn't seem real—they were merely bad dreams. But today, when I really tackled the question, I woke up with a bump! Why, the things are real! They actually do exist!"

"I wandered around one hat department and my spirits kept getting lower and lower. I don't know when I've felt so sad—not since my French poodle choked to death on a chicken bone! When the polite clerks asked me mechanically if I was waited on I just waved them away speechlessly. It was all I could do to bear up under the strain without bursting into bitter tears. Most of the hats were just like sections of overgrown stovepipes and apparently were designed to cover you up completely to your neck. Of course this saves a lot of time in dressing the hair, because any coiffure is completely ruined and smashed by putting on the things. Ali over the department I could see distracted customers with their locks streaming wild and free, just like inmates of a lunatic asylum." These people looked as though their heads had been sat on and without exception their faces indicated that they had just heard bad news from home.

"Would you like to try it on?" a clerk murmured at my elbow.

"I was holding in my hand a wad of gloomy velvet with a frizzled rosebud attached to one edge. It appealed to me as a daring and dubious undertaking, so I got under the hat. The effect would have moved a heart of stone, but that woman never winked an eyelash. She even went the length of saying it was 'chawming!' Then she caught my accusing eye and hastened to hedge.

"You know," she said soothingly, "that you aren't expected to have any hair this season. You are allowed only one eye and part of a nose. At least, that is all that is visible after your hat is clamped on. Really, when you get used to it, it isn't so bad!"

"I reminded her sternly that she can get used to hanging in time. From that hat we went from bad to worse. At the tenth I murmured to the clerk: 'Do I look like that in this?'

"She glanced over at the customer whom I indicated. The customer had just put on an extinguisher with gold braid and a dewdad. It hid her head clear below her ear on one side and on the other the brim extended until it trailed on her shoulder and you could see just the tip of her nose outside.

"That?" asked the clerk, evidently taking my tone for one of envious awe. "Oh, yes! Only more so!"

"Then take this away," I told her, violently, "because I have relatives with family pride and they are capable of walling me up alive in the cellar to hide their disgrace if I go home looking like that!"

"She glanced over at the customer whom I indicated. The customer had just put on an extinguisher with gold braid and a dewdad. It hid her head clear below her ear on one side and on the other the brim extended until it trailed on her shoulder and you could see just the tip of her nose outside.

"That?" asked the clerk, evidently taking my tone for one of envious awe. "Oh, yes! Only more so!"

"Then take this away," I told her, violently, "because I have relatives with family pride and they are capable of walling me up alive in the cellar to hide their disgrace if I go home looking like that!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a modest, respectable-looking derby hat and keep the respect of my fellow men!"

"If you feel better now," said the hostess, "I'll show you my new hat! It's worse than anything you've described, and I am wildly in love with it!"

"She seemed quite indignant and pitying, and said, 'Vur-ry well!' in a pained voice. Then I tottered away, bewailing the fact that I am a woman and can't go in and buy a

Waiting for George

"By all means, Marjorie," said that young woman's married sister. "You're a goose to hesitate. Call up George and just tell him that two tickets to a concert were sent to you and that you would be pleased if he would go with you. George will be delighted, I know."

"Perhaps so," responded Marjorie, "but I dislike calling up any man. His mother, sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, brothers-in-law and the stranger within his gates always know all about it. The only men I don't object to calling up are orphans. Still, this time I will accept your motherly advice; so here is where I drop my nickel."

She left the room. A few minutes later she returned, saying: "He knew my voice immediately, so I didn't have to tell my name. Now, Mrs. Know-it-all on our line can't talk about me tomorrow. He said: 'Of course, I'll go, but I may be a trifle late.'"

As the clock struck eight that evening Marjorie remarked to her married sister: "Don't you think George is rather late? He's always so punctual."

"He'll be here presently," answered the married sister. "May be he cut himself shaving and he can't find a piece of court plaster."

"He never shaves himself," responded Marjorie.

"Well, maybe the barber shop was so crowded he could not get a chair. I know what a time Billy has getting shaved," said the married sister.

After a long silence Marjorie said: "The concert began at eight. It's 8:30 now. Where in the world is that man?"

"Phone him again and discover the cause of this delay," suggested the married sister. "Maybe a long-lost brother arrived unexpectedly from Timbuctoo."

"He hasn't any long-lost brother," objected Marjorie. "He knows the exact position of every member of his family."

At 9:30 Marjorie jumped up, exclaiming: "I'm going to put on my $1,000 silk kimono and read the last book Harold sent me, eat the candy that came from Arthur today and forget there ever was such a person as George or so impossible a thing as a Tuesday-night concert."

"I'm dreadfully sorry, dear," said the married sister. "I don't think I understand it. George would never break an engagement except for something overwhelmingly important. He's not that kind. Maybe his house is on fire and he is saving the family heirlooms."

"Mildred Morton Morse," exclaimed Marjorie. "I beg of you not to 'maybe' me any more. With that wonderful imagination of yours Peter Pan himself is put to shame. How did that matter-of-fact husband of yours ever win you? And you and he seem crazy about each other, too. This is a peculiar world," added she. "Kiss your disappointed sister good-night."

"Listen!" said the married sister. "There's the door bell. It's George, at last."

"Where have you been?" exclaimed the sisters, in chorus.

"Speak now, or forever hold your peace," added Marjorie.

"First let me get my breath," gasped the offender. "I'm exhausted. Marjorie, I'm horribly sorry that I've spoiled your evening. But we'll make up for it somehow. Listen to my story before you order me shot at sunrise."

"When you called me up, Marjorie, you remember, you asked: 'Do you know who this is?' As you are always so stingy about calling up a fellow, I never dreamed it could be you. Well, anyway, I thought it was Dorothy. Honest, I did."

"There being a breakdown on the car track this evening," George continued, "it took me just one hour to arrive at the wrong girl's house. Her father answered the door bell. Before I could explain that I didn't come to stay, he grabbed my hat, coat and gloves, thrust a cigar into my hand, pushed me into an armchair and told me to watch a champion bridge game between three old cronies and himself."

"Then I managed to say: 'I'm waiting for Dorothy.'

"'You'll have a long wait, my boy,' replied her father. 'Dorothy is in Lake Forest. She's been there for a week—some bridal doing, I think.'

"But she telephoned to me to take her to a concert tonight," I said.

"It must have been some other girl," he laughed. "The joke is on you."

"With that he and his friends shouted with laughter. I believe they are laughing yet."

"You poor boy," said Marjorie's sister.

Marjorie remained silent.

"I grabbed my hat, coat, gloves and cane," George proceeded, "and rushed to the nearest drug store. A suspicion as to the real owner of the voice that called me up today had dawned on my dense mind. It took ten minutes for the highly-perfumed clerk to give me a slug for my nickel, then I waited 15 minutes more before I discovered that your phone was out of order."

"Well, I'm here at last, and I can say to you that I'm positively crestfallen. But you will forgive me, won't you, Marjorie?"

"Would you, Mildred?" asked Marjorie.

But the married sister was in paroxysms of laughter, so she could only nod her assent.

MESSANGER BOYS IN BERLIN.

Useful as Escorts for Lone Women and Substitutes for Nursemaids.

Berlin has just adopted the district messenger. The boys wear jaunty polo caps with leather straps under their chins like English infantrymen.

Their uniform is blue with red pipings and red stripes down the seams of the trousers. The coats are military blouses with stiff, braided upright collars. There are six buttons in groups of two so arranged that both regular and shoulder belts may be worn. The latter has regular cartouche case for the safe keeping of letters or small parcels.

Odd enough, it is not so much in a business way that the system has attracted the Berliners. They have taken it up as a kind of social and domestic auxiliary.

The boys are already in request as escorts to lone women; this is a special boon in a city where a respectable woman can hardly stir out of doors after dark without either escort or chaperon.

Many households are also saving the expense of a nursemaid by calling a boy to trundle the baby's perambulator for an hour or so or perhaps to romp with the larger children in one of the parks. Boys are also seen giving French poodles their airings and Berlin lovers are said to have found them a more trustworthy medium of communication than the mails.

The peaceful Berliners are not yet accustomed to the novelty and as the boys go about the streets on their various errands crowds stand to gaze at them. The boys are rigidly drilled, especially in politeness.

PLEASED THE BOSTON MAN.

Thought Indian Was Acknowledging Culture of Modern Athens.

The following story is often told among the old pioneers and more enlightened Indians of Oregon, though it has probably never appeared in print.

At the time the Hudson Bay company was founding the city of Portland in the early fifties, there was a party of Bostonian speculators located farther up the Columbia river. This party was often referred to as "the Boston men" and from frequently hearing this expression, the Indians came to apply the term of "Boston man" as their only expression meaning white man. In further explanation, the Indian word for expressing bad and dishonest is "cultus."

One day while a number of Indians were sitting by the roadside, a couple of the Boston speculators not versed in the lingo of the Indians coming upon them, stopped to see what they were doing.

An old Indian looked up and, turning to his friends remarked: "Cultus Boston men" (Bad and thievish white men).

Then one of the speculators turned to his friend and said in amazement:

"Just to think that even these poor ignorant Indians acknowledge the 'culture' of the Bostonian."

SIMPLY OUT OF THE QUESTION.

Sufferer—Well, what is the matter with me, doctor?

Physician (brusquely)—Appendicitis.

Sufferer (horrified)—Nonsense, doctor! You don't know what you are talking about! I can't afford to have appendicitis.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

The stern New England father had just turned his daughter into the street.

"Fine," she ejaculated. "I'll just pick up a few mining stocks on the curb."

Thus we see that every cloud has a silver lining.

IT WOULDN'T BE RIGHT.

"I can't imagine anything more unsatisfactory," remarked the chronic kicker, "than a meal at our boarding house."

"No?" replied the sentimental youth. "Evidently you never get a kiss from your best girl over the telephone."

A DWINDLED CELEBRITY.

"I suppose you are rich beyond the dreams of Monte Carlo," said the envious friend.

"Monte Cristo!" echoed Mr. Dustin Stax. "Why, sir, compared to the modern trust magnate, Monte Cristo was a poor relation."

TALES OF HER PAST

"I shouldn't have blamed Fred a bit," said the girl who was wearing a recently acquired diamond ring. "If he had broken the engagement. Of course, I am just the same person I've always been, but it must have smashed his idea of me into smithereens, for at first he had a queer notion that I am closely related to the angels."

"Right here let me advise any of you who may happen to become engaged to a man who has never seen you in your native land, so to speak, to keep him away from it until after the wedding ceremony is performed. He's bound to be disillusioned in the course of time, but it's better to let him wait until the disclosure is perfectly inevitable."

"You know," she went on. "I met Fred when I was visiting Aunt Lucy in the east, and it wasn't my fault that he would insist on coming here for his vacation. I wanted to see him, but goodness knows I didn't want him to hear the tale of my doings, evil and otherwise, from the time I was born, and I knew he would if he came."

"The very first evening he came to see me father brought out all my old photographs to show him. My photographs are more than a joke—they are a family disgrace. Mother says if she didn't have me to exhibit in proof that I don't really look like them she would throw them all away."

"First there was my baby picture that looks like a compromise between a monkey and a scrambled egg. Then there is the one with the short sleeves and abbreviated skirt that makes me look as if I had on pantaloons. To add to the fearful sight there are two little round curls pasted on the brow like something dreadful that had happened before the war. The worst of it was that, no matter how harrowing they were, they were all unmistakably unquestionable and indubitably ugly."

"After Fred had seen all the photographs the family sat around and harked back to the days of my unregenerate youth. All the horrible old family traditions about me were trotted out. They told how I always made straight for the coal bucket as soon as I was nicely washed and dressed. They said I never was known to be clean five minutes after the great feat of dressing me—which you would think required the help of half a dozen strong men from the way they tell it—had been accomplished. They told how I shrieked when I was bathed, how I stuck beans in my ears and cut off my hair so that my head had to be shaved. They related how I had to be spanked every day when mother tried to teach me to read, and thousands of other anecdotes that long since should have been consigned to oblivion."

"Mother told of the attack of typhoid fever I had at an age when no well-regulated child would have dreamed of such a thing. She went on to describe in detail all the infantile diseases that I used to bring home."

"Never once did the family leave the subject of poor me during the entire evening. Finally Fred's face took on a set smile and his eyes grew so glassy that I was afraid he was going to have a fit."

"The next day we went over to see dear old Aunt Lizzie, who has been a sort of second mother to me all my life, and whose heart would have been broken if she hadn't been the first one outside of the family to meet Fred. Aunt Lizzie started in with my first appearance on the scene. Dear me, what a good time she did have telling about it! She said I was the ugliest, reddest scrap of humanity she had ever seen."

"Fred has always said that what appealed to him most strongly about me was that I was so entirely feminine. He never has cared for athletic girls. Of course, I never breathed that I was noted for being the greatest tomboy in town. Coming home from Aunt Lizzie's we met Tom Meyer."

"Tom just stuck his hands in his pockets and grinned and said, 'Hello, Mabel,' as though we were both about ten years old."

"When we got home and I mentioned that we had met Tom, my brother, of course, had to tell about the time Tom pushed me into the mud and I got up and fought him for it. Brother Dick's really proud of the way I used to fight. He thought Fred would be delighted to know that I could lick any boy of my size when I was six years old."

MONEY IN SNAILS AND BEES.

"The climax came when our old rector came to call and after telling how I tried to climb into the font when he baptized me he shook his finger at me waggishly and said to Fred: 'You'll have to watch this young lady carefully or she'll give you the slip yet. Did you ever hear how she treated—'

"Then, aided and abetted by my marble-hearted family, he went on to tell about all the flirtations I had ever had from the cradle up. And I had really convinced Fred that he was the only man I had ever thought of twice!"

The girl with the engagement ring heaved a deep sigh.

"We are still engaged," she said, "and Fred insists that he feels just the same as ever toward me, but I can hardly believe it."

REFUGE PLACE FOR MINERS.

Plan Suggested for Lessening Loss of Life in Collieries.

The adoption of an ingenious, if not unique, plan for reducing the loss of life from colliery explosions is advocated in the current issue of Mines and Minerals by Mr. J. L. Dixon. He would excavate in a convenient place in every coal mine a chamber in which a large number of men might take refuge. Its existence and position should be made known by placards, and these might be supplemented by arrows, inscribed with luminous paint on the walls of the mine. In order to serve the purpose for which it was erected, this chamber should contain not only those things which are required in giving "first aid to the injured," but also a good supply of food and perhaps reservoirs of compressed oxygen. Two other features of the equipment which Mr. Dixon considers necessary are a pipe through which plenty of fresh air can be forced in, and a telephone which is "explosion proof," and with which communication can be had with the outside world.

Only a small share of the mortality caused by colliery explosions is due to physical injury. Most of it results from suffocation by poisonous gases. Death is rarely immediate, and miners have sometimes survived who were extricated after more than a day's imprisonment. If means were provided for introducing fresh air into a mine under such circumstances, and if the men could get the full benefit of it, absolute release might be almost indefinitely deferred.

Legislative enactments, natural humanity and business prudence have jointly led to the adoption of precautions in every great industry which are meant to avert the loss of life or limb. The operation of coal mines in this country or Europe affords no exception to the rule, for numerous devices are employed and stringent rules are in force to prevent explosions. These do not always avail, however, and it might be profitable as well as merciful to resort to new measures for promoting the success of rescue work.

ROUGH.

Cholly Citychap—Don't you find it very disagreeable work running a farm?

Hi Hawbuck—Yes; I'm goin' against the grain most of the time.

LONDON'S WOMAN BOOTBLACK.

And now the woman bootblack has made her appearance in London, and the excitement in her street is rising to boiling point. The first morning she dawned upon the public every one was so astonished that they forgot all about business or engagements and stopped for a shine and to ask a few questions. She has taken her stand in Jermyn street and has hardly known an idle moment since she started in, so many dusty and mud-stained shoes have come her way.

It is wondered whether women who believe in equal rights with man will feel that they have achieved another step along the way.

MONEY IN SNAILS AND BEES.

Upon the southern slope of a range of hills some 20 miles from London an old and crippled keeper eked out his slender pension by collecting and feeding snails, and finds a ready sale for them in the foreign restaurants. He also holds a standing order for all the autumn-caught bumble-bees he can collect, for exportation to New Zealand. These bees fertilize the flowers of clover plants.

ITS USEFULNESS.

Aunt Maria—The table was laid with 18 covers.

Uncle Hiram—Gee whilkins, if a feller split his gravy it wouldn't go through to the bottom.—Puck.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Charl. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifles with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulence. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of Charl. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Dr. Cook's Confession

In the January issue of HAMPTON'S MAGAZINE—the magazine that published Commander Peary's Own Story of the Conquest of the North Pole—Dr. Cook frankly admits that he does not know whether he reached the North Pole or not.

JAMES WEST

HUGH WEST

JAS. WEST & CO.,

LOOSE FLO'R TOBACCO SALES
DAILY AT
NEW ENTERPRISE WAREHOUSE,
12TH STREET, EAST OF L. & N. R. R.

Plenty of Room, good light and all necessary trucks and equipment. Stable room furnished for teams. Remember the place, New Enterprise Warehouse.

Service Best! Prices Lowest!

One Rate to All { Business $3.00
Professional $2.50
Residence $1.50

The Hopkinsville Home Telephone Co.
Incorporated.

D. G. EDWARDS, Gen. Mgr. Telephone No. 1444.

H. C. MOORE,

Livery, Feed and Board Stable

We make a specialty of good rigs and gentle horses for ladies, also have something to suit everybody.

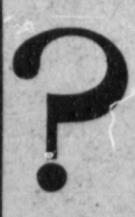

Percy Smithson will be with me and will be glad to see all of his old friends.

H. C. MOORE.

IT'S GREAT.

IT'S A NECESSITY.

WHAT?

A Convenient Gas Heater For Bath Room, Dining Room or Bed Room.
$1.00 AND UP.

CITY LIGHT COMPANY,
Incorporated.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian TRI-WEEKLY

The Commoner, WEEKLY, AND

The American Homestead, MONTHLY

All One Year
for

$2.65

SEND ALL ORDERS TO THIS OFFICE.

HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN.

THE HATPIN JABBLING TIME

Fine Time for an Artist to Take a Picture of a Matinee Audience.

What a busy buzz there is at the close of a matinee, when the women put on their hats and go to jabbing at their heads with those long hatpins. It is like a soft breeze blowing across the stubble field. One of the man kind looking on swings between fear and delight—fear that they will pierce their pretty heads, and delight at the grace with which they jab.

It would be a fine stroke of policy if some artist could take a picture of a matinee audience at the pin jabbing moment. The postures, the struggling arms, the anxious faces of the poor, innocent man, here and there, waiting for the incident to close, would make a scene of such grace and innocence that everybody would want a picture of it. And if such a picture could be preserved for ten years and shown to the generation then on the scene of life, it would command the price of a Van Dyke or a Murillo.

WHAT SHE WANTED

Book Store Clerk—Oh! yes, here's a book on "Good Form" for 75c.

Customer—My wife will want a better form than that, I am sure. Show me a book worth $1.50.

TURN ABOUT.

At Cumberland, Md., the colored servants, as a rule, go to their own homes at night. The cook in the family of the Episcopalian clergyman not only does this but of late has arrived at the rectory too late to cook breakfast. Hence her mistress lately told her that for each breakfast missed there would be a reduction in her weekly wages. Dinah passively assented to this, but next day the mistress heard the maid next door say to her:

"Pears to me yo go to work mighty late."

"I gets to work when I gets ready," was the reply.

"How does you manage about de breakfast?"

"Oh, I pays de missus to cook de brekfus."—Housekeeper.

HOMESTEAD LAWS.

The homestead laws are of two classes: those enacted by congress and those enacted by state legislatures. The primary object of the first class is to enable citizens without capital to acquire homes. The main object of the second class is to secure homes, once acquired, against the claims of creditors. Legislation of the first class has done much to stimulate the settlement and improvement of wild, unoccupied land. That of the second class has saved countless families from pauperism.

THE TURBINE.

The first steam turbine fitted vessel, the Turbinia, was constructed by the Hon. C. A. Parsons at his works at Newcastle-on-Tyne. The Turbinia was a small vessel, some 100 feet in length, and her first trip was made November 4, 1894. The system rapidly developed, owing to the increased speed and the economy in coal, and it is safe to say that it is destined to do away with all others in the near future.

REQUIRES PRACTISE.

After you learn to say it fluently there is something beautifully musical about the name of Cleofonte Campanini.

ALL THAT A MAN HATH.

An automobile does not prove that a man has money but that he did have.—Judge.

KEEP THE CLOSETS CLEAN

Point of Importance That is Too Frequently Overlooked by the Busy Housewife.

Usually there are about the house closets so dark that except at the yearly or semi-yearly housecleaning it is impossible to tell whether or not they are dirty. They are breeders of disease, even in the best-managed households, for no maid and few mistresses will crawl into the dark hole under the stairs or back in the kitchen after perfectly invisible dust.

One solution of the problem is to paint these closets white, ceiling, floor and walls. It is easy enough to see dirt then, and the other and more useful contents of the closet as well. If one can keep the hall closet clean and find the family overshoes on sight, simply by painting the closet white, then by all means let us hasten to the paint shop and remove the obsolete and horrible wall paper that usually incubates these germ hotels.

If the closet is still dark after this treatment try cleaning with the aid of the electric flash light. There is no danger of fire and corners can be closely investigated. All of which is an advantage to the housewife who does not love dirt and disorder.

But always, when cleaning day comes, consider first the closets and most important of all of these is the sloping, dark, neglected closet under the stairs.

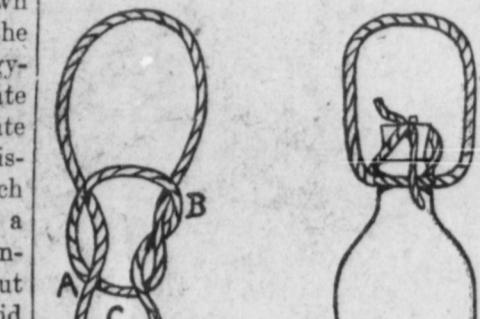

TWO FINE TART SIDE DISHES

Especially Good to Serve With Game or Roast Meats—Aids to the Appetite.

Sweet Pickled Apples.—A delicious pickle is this, made from sweet apples. Cut in halves through the stem, leaving the core in and the skin on. Put three cloves in each half as in pickling peaches, then make a syrup, allowing for every six pounds of apples three pounds of sugar and a pint of vinegar. Add a few cassia buds or pieces of stick cinnamon, put the fruit in and cook the syrup a little longer until thickened and pour over the fruit.

Grape Relish.—Pick from the stems seven pounds of grapes, rather under ripe, and separate the pulp from the skins. Put the skins in a preserving kettle over the fire, with just enough water to prevent their burning. Place the pulp in another kettle and cook until the seeds loosen. Press through a sieve and add to the skins with a half pint of vinegar, three pounds of sugar and a teaspoochful each cloves, allspice and cinnamon. Boil until thick. This is fine to serve with game or roast meats.

TO TIE CORK IN BOTTLE

First make a loop in a piece of strong twine and pass both ends through at B and A. Place the loop over the neck of the bottle and draw it snugly at A and tie in a hard knot at B, when there will be a string on both sides of the bottle to tie firmly over the cork, also a handy loop to handle the bottle with.

Delicious Breakfast Muffins.
One-third teaspoon salt and one-half teaspoonful of soda dissolve in one-half cup of hot water, one tablespoon of molasses, one tablespoon of melted butter, one well beaten egg, one cup of milk, one cup of bran meal and one and one-half cups of graham meal. Bake in gem pans 25 minutes. This will make nine.

Cheese With Peppers.
Melt two heaping tablespoonsfuls of butter in the chafing dish, add five tablespoonsfuls of chopped onion, quarter cupful of cream of milk, seasoning of salt, pepper and paprika, and four well beaten eggs. Cook till thoroughly mixed and serve hot on buttered slices of toasted bread.

Ant Remedy.
Here is a sure remedy for the removal of the little ant pest: Remove paper from shelves, then wash them with hot water. Prepare some strong alum water and take a small paint brush and cover the shelves, cracks and corners a few times, and you will soon be free from them.

Egg Plant Fritters.
Parboil an egg plant, remove all the seeds and mash it. Stir in three tablespoonsfuls of flour, one minced onion, an egg and salt and pepper to taste. Beat to the consistency of pancake batter, drop from a large iron spoon into hot boiling fat and fry brown.

Cracker Pie.
Pour boiling water over four or five crackers and let soak. Press out the water and pour in juice of a lemon, with teacup of sugar. Pour in pie paste and bake.

Use Paraffin Twice.
Paraffin can be used the second time to cover jelly and jam if it is washed clean and boiled before being turned over the fruit again.

THANKS!

THANKS!

I wish to thank the people of Hopkinsville and Christian county for their liberal patronage. Wishing one and all a merry Christmas and happy New Year.

I am, yours truly,

J. K. TWYMAN,
204 S. Main St. 'Phones Gumb. 314 Home 1128

BEFORE YOU BUY--- LOOK---

At Our Line of Overcoats

$12.50 to $20.00

Don't Forget the Pants---Always

$2.98

"THE STORE FOR MEN."

Irving Roseborough Co.
Incorporated.

Two Propositions

Good Only Until February 1, 1911.

OFFER NO. 1

Home and Farm, the South's greatest agricultural paper, for a full year, regular price 50c and worth it.

Uncle Remus Home Magazine, founded by Joel Chandler Harris, a magazine especially made for the Southern people, a full year, regular price $1.00 and worth it.

Good Housekeeping the best magazine published for the home and housewife, one full year, regular price $1.50 and worth it.

And, The Evening Post, a daily newspaper devoted to the best interests of Kentucky and its people, equal to any daily newspaper in the country, for 3 months, regular price $1.25 and worth it.

And, The Hopkinsville Kentuckian, tri-weekly one year $2.00.

Total $6.25.

Here you have a value of $6.25. The wonderful offer we make you as publisher for all five publications is $3.00.

OFFER NO. 2

Home and Farm one year $0.50

Uncle Remus Magazine one year 1.00

Good Housekeeping Magazine one year 1.50

Cosmopolitan Magazine one year 1.50

The Cosmopolitan Magazine is recognized as one of the best and brightest magazines published in America regular price 1.50

The Daily Evening Post the remainder of 1910 and throughout the entire year of 1911, price 3.50

And the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, tri-weekly one year 2.00

Total $10.00

Here you have $10.00

worth of the best publications to be found in the United States and the price to you, under offer No. 2 is only $4.75

This is Indeed a Great Offer. Don't Miss it.
Send all Orders to The Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Have You Any Mantle Troubles?

USE INNERLIN LINED MANTLES
PATENTED-REGISTERED

AND YOUR TROUBLES ARE OVER

Block Innerlin Lined Mantles give 50 per cent more light and will outlast six ordinary mantles. This means a saving of 75 per cent. on your mantle expense. TWO COMPLETE GAS MANTLES IN ONE. Price, 25 cents

GET ONE TO TRY WITHOUT COST

Save the box covers from 12 Block Vy-tal-ty Mantles—the best and 15-cent grade of mantles sold—take them to your dealer, or send them to us, and get a Block Innerlin Lined Mantle free. Block Vy-tal-ty and Block Innerlin Lined Mantle China, Plumbing, Grocery and Drug Stores.

Dealers Write for Our Descriptive Circular and New Catalogue

The Block Light Co., Your Upland, Ohio
(Sole Manufacturer)

Headquarters for Incandescent Mantles, Burners, Gasoline, Kerosene, etc. 'Phones 12th Street, etc.

TO OUR PATRONS:

We beg to extend our grateful acknowledgments to our good friends for their loyalty to us during the past year and indeed for many years past. We shall strive to merit a continuance of your friendship.

Forbes Manufacturing Co.,

Incorporated.

FIERCEST BLIZZARD

Of The Season Comes With Snow And Bitter Cold.

EQUALS SPEE OF 1910.

Five Inches of Snow Fall Monday Night and Tuesday.

The whole country is in the grip of a blizzard equal to that of a year ago. Snow began falling Monday night and fell at intervals until Tuesday at noon. Five inches fell upon the frozen ground and has shown no sign of melting. The drop in the temperature followed the snow and yesterday morning the mercury registered 12 degrees below zero, according to the government thermometer kept by Mr. W. F. Randle. The spell is a duplicate of the blizzard of Jan. 7, 1910, when 14 inches of snow fell and was followed by zero weather, the mercury standing 12 below.

FISCAL COURT

Elects Jno. W. Richards to Make The Sheriff's Statement.

Fiscal court was in regular monthly session Tuesday. Miscellaneous claims amounting to about $1,200 were allowed. Claims for sheep killed by dogs, amounting to $18, were approved and ordered certified to the Auditor of Public Accounts for payment.

An order was made appropriating $700 to W. F. Randle, poor commissioner, to pay poor claims for the present year and those now due, out of the poor fund.

John W. Richards was elected as commissioner to make settlement with the sheriff for county revenue collected by the latter for the year 1910, on behalf of the fiscal court.

William Morris, col., was relieved from payment of poll tax in future, on account of the loss of an arm.

Accounts aggregating about $110 for poor house supplies were allowed and ordered paid.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You, Me, Always Bought

Bears the signature of Walter Kelly.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Issued Past Year Show Increase Over 1909.

There were 394 marriage licenses issued by the county clerk during the year 1910. Two of these, one white and one colored, were returned, unused, and endorsed "No property found." The license were divided, as follows: Whites, 179; Colored, 215. This is a net increase of 17 over the year 1909. In 1909 licenses were issued to 158 white couples, against 179 in 1910, an increase of twenty-one. There was a decrease of three in the colored, as compared with the year 1909.

Moseley—Caldwell.

Dr. Gayle G. Moseley, formerly of this county, and Miss Julia Caldwell, of Redlands, Cal., were married last night at the home of the bride.

Dr. Moseley, for some years practiced medicine near Casy, but moved to California several years ago. His bride is said to be a charming young woman.

Roark-Johnston.

Miss Hattie Lee Johnston, of this city, who has been in the South for a year or two, was married a week or two ago to Mr. Roark, of Uniontown, Ala. No particulars have been received.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes, H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C. for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure. It's positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c & $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists."

THE ATHENAEUM

Will Hold Its January Meeting To-night.

The Athenaeum will meet to-night at Hotel Latham in regular meeting. Prof. Davis A. Clark will write on "The character Brutus."

Others on the program are Capt. A. G. Chapman and Mr. Lucian H. Davis.

My office will be over the American Express Co. 9th and Va. Sts.

WALTER KELLY.

PRODUCTION OF COAL IN 1910

Kentucky Among The States Showing Notable Increase.

HAS A GREAT INCREASE.

The Estimate Was Made By Edward W. Parker
In 1910.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The production of coal in the United States during 1910 was between 475,000,000 and 485,000,000 short tons a considerable increase from the output, 459,725,804 short tons in 1909, and approximately within one per cent of the maximum previous record of 480,363,424 tons, produced in 1907. This estimate was made by Edward W. Parker, from reports received by the United States Geological Survey from coal mine operators and others familiar with the industry.

"The most important factor influencing the coal mining industry in 1910," says Mr. Parker, "was the prolonged strike in Illinois and the southwestern states. The strike of suspension which started on April 1, pending an adjustment of the wage scale, was not finally settled until September 15, and after that date much time was lost in putting the mines into condition for operation so that the period of idleness in the mines effected was fully six months. The settlement was a practical surrender of the operators to demands of the miners with an increase of 5.55 per cent in wages. A similar increase was granted in a number of other states, either before the strike was called or during the suspension or subsequent to it. During the idleness many of the miners who were on strike in Illinois obtained employment in mines of competitive states and helped to increase the output of these states, which offset the shortage in the states affected."

"Notable increases in production were made in the western counties of Kentucky, in Western Pennsylvania and in Ohio, West Virginia, Alabama, Colorado, New Mexico and Montana. The states whose production was reduced by the strike were Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma. It was claimed by the miners' organization that on June 1, 1910, 70,000 miners were idle in Illinois and 34,000 in the southwest, that is, in Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

About the middle of May the operators of the most important districts in Illinois sold out from the Illinois Coal Operators' Association.

was in contest with the miner's union, accepted the miners terms and went to work. Other mines which were not represented in the association were also operated during the strike, so that from 25 to 30 per cent of the normal output was being produced at the time the strike was ended and this continuous production was a potent factor in bringing the operators to terms with the miners.

"Of the total production in 1910 the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania contributed nearly 83,000,000 short tons and bituminous mines between 390,000,000 and 400,000,000 tons."

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c at all Drug-gists.

Obituary.

In memory of my brother, L. G. Smith.

He was born in Virginia June 29, 1844, and departed this life Dec. 4, 1910. He was the son of Rev. John B. Smith, of near Lafayette, Ky. He was the youngest of fourteen children, which are all gone but two.

He professed religion and joined the Baptist church and was baptized by Rev. A. W. Meacham, in March, 1861. He lived a Christian life.

He lived with his mother at the old home until she died, July 1882, and then with his niece, Mrs. Nannie Coombs, who resides on the old home place. He was afflicted all of his life but bore his afflictions with patience. He was liked by all who knew him. We miss him so much.

Brother, thou art gone to dwell With loved ones gone before, Where suffering shall be no more. Thou art gone to heaven above, Where all is peace and love.

Freed from a life of toil and pain, Thou shalt never suffer again.

His Brother.

Herndon, Ky., Jan. 1, 1911.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost-bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold-sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklin's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Bruises, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at all druggists.

The figures in 1911 look odd when you write them.

One Price to All

Maintained under any and all conditions. We solicit your future business and assure you that you will get polite and courteous treatment and your money's worth for every dollar expended in our store.

Planters Hardware Co.

Incorporated.
The One Price Cash Store.

Begin the New Year by having your teeth attended to at

Dr. Feirstein's Louisville Dental Parlors.

Extractions 25c
Fillings 75c
Both Phones. Open Nights.

NO. 208 SOUTH MAIN ST.

J. K. TWYMAN

N

When you want anything in the Grocery Line, We carry a full and complete Line of Staple and Fancy Groceries. Country Produce Bought and Sold.

reening
Your

top 222-1.
ss. 960.